DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Bureau of Export Administration

Action Affecting Export Privileges; Rodco International, Inc.

In the Matter of: Rodco International, Inc., 1300 Patricia Drive #1403, San Antonio, Texas 78213, Respondent.

Order

The Office of Export Enforcement, Bureau of Export Administration, United States Department of Commerce (BXA), having notified Rodco International, Inc. (Rodco) of its intention to initiate an administrative proceeding against it pursuant to Section 13(c) of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C.A. app. 2401-2420 (1991 & Supp. 1996)) (the Act),¹ and the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 C.F.R. Parts 768-799 (1996), as amended (61 FR 12714 (March 25, 1996)) (the Regulations),² based on allegations that, between on or about June 12, 1992 and on or about December 3, 1993, Rodco exported U.S.-origin chemicals from the United States to Mexico on 11 separate occasions without obtaining the validated licenses required by Section 772.1(b) of the Regulations; and

BXA and Rodco having entered into a Settlement Agreement pursuant to Section 766.18(a) of the Regulations whereby they agreed to settle this matter in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth therein, and the terms of the Settlement Agreement having been approved by me;

It Is Therefore Ordered

First, that a civil penalty of $110,000 is assessed against Rodco, which shall be suspended in its entirety for a period of one year from the date of entry of this Order. Payment shall thereafter be waived, provided that, during the period of suspension, Rodco has committed no violation of the Act, or any regulation, order, or license issued thereunder.

Second, that for a period of two years from the date of this Order, Rodco

¹ The Act expired on August 20, 1994. Executive Order 12924 (3 C.F.R., 1994 Comp. 917 (1995)), extended by Presidential Notice of August 15, 1995 (60 FR 42767, August 17, 1995), and extended again on August 14, 1996 (61 FR 42527, August 15, 1996), continued the Regulations in effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C.A. 1701-1706 (1991 & Supp. 1996)).

² The March 25, 1996 Federal Register publication redesignated, but did not republish, the existing Regulations as 15 C.F.R. Parts 768A-799A. In addition, the March 25 Federal Register publication restructured and reorganized the Regulations, designating them as an interim rule at 15 C.F.R. Parts 730-774, effective April 24, 1996.

International, Inc., 1300 Patricia Drive, #1403, San Antonio, Texas 78213, and all of its successors or assigns, and all of its officers, representatives, agents, and employees when acting for or on behalf of Rodco, may not, directly or indirectly, participate in any way in any transaction involving any commodity, software or technology (hereinafter collectively referred to as "item") exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or in any other activity subject to the Regulations, including, but not limited to:

A. Applying for, obtaining, or using any license,³ License Exception, or export control document;

B. Carrying on negotiations concerning, or ordering, buying, receiving, using, selling, delivering, storing, disposing of, forwarding, transporting, financing, or otherwise servicing in any way, any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or in any other activity subject to the Regulations; or

C. Benefiting in any way from any transaction involving any item exported or to be exported from the United States that is subject to the Regulations, or in any other activity subject to the Regulations.

Third, that no person may, directly or indirectly, do any of the following:

A. Export or reexport to or on behalf of the denied person any item subject to the Regulations;

B. Take any action that facilitates the acquisition or attempted acquisition by the denied person of the ownership, possession, or control of any item subject to the Regulations that has been or will be exported from the United States, including financing or other support activities related to a transaction whereby the denied person acquires or attempts to acquire such ownership, possession or control;

C. Take any action to acquire from or to facilitate the acquisition or attempted acquisition from the denied person of any item subject to the Regulations that has been exported from the United States;

D. Obtain from the denied person in the United States any item subject to the Regulations with knowledge or reason to know that the item will be, or is intended to be, exported from the United States; or

E. Engage in any transaction to service any item subject to the Regulations that

³ For purposes of this Order, "license" includes any general license established in 15 C.F.R. Parts 768A-799A.
